EXTRACT FROM THE BY-LAWS.

DIVIDENDS.

On the second Wednesday of April and of October in each year there may be declared and paid a dividend of at least ONE AND A HALF PER CENTUM PER ANNUM on all sums from one dollar to one thousand dollars which shall have been deposited for the space of six months next preceding said Wednesday, and a proportionate rate of interest shall be paid on sums which shall have been deposited for the space of three months. But on fractional parts of a dollar no dividend shall be allowed. Dividends not withdrawn will be added to and draw interest as an original deposit, until the amount is increased to sixteen hundred dollars.

All interest, if the same be not called for, shall be added to the principal of the Depositor, and shall be entitled to interest as much as an original deposit; but in case money is withdrawn before the declaration of a dividend, no interest shall be allowed on it for the period which may have elapsed since the last dividend was declared.

Depositors may receive their dividends either personally, or by a written order, or by letter of attorney, on production of the Book of Deposit.

DRAFTS.

Money deposited shall only be drawn out by the Depositor, or some person by him legally authorized; but no person shall receive any part of his principal or interest without producing the original book, that such payment may be entered therein. No money can be withdrawn except on the third Wednesday of January, April, July and October; provided, however, that the Treasurer may pay any Depositor, who applies on any other day, his interest or principal, or part thereof, if the money on hand be sufficient for the purpose (one week's notice before the day of withdrawing having been given to the Treasurer.) All moneys received by the Treasurer shall be either specie or bills taken in deposit by the Boston banks.

Upon the death of any depositor the money standing to his credit shall be paid to his legatee, or heir at law, or legal representative, conformably to the laws of the State; and if the sum shall be under fifty dollars the same may be paid to the legatee, or next of kin, or legal representative, without the expense of any probate of will, or letter of administration; and it is agreed that such payment shall discharge the Corporation.

As the officers of this Institution may be unable to identify every Depositor transacting business at the Bank, the Institution will not be responsible for loss sustained where the Depositor has not given notice of his book being stolen or lost, if such book be paid in whole or in part on presentment.
